HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

Our school is one of many machines of production responsible for the citizens of tomorrow . . . The students are the workmen, the teachers the foremen . . .

The Redskin Record in years to come will bring back memories of apprenticeship in preparation for life . . . J.C.H.S. means much more to us as Seniors than it did as Freshmen, --yes, more than a mere candlelight, a bright and ceaseless headlight with wider beams for tomorrow . . .

Dear:
I want to wish you all the happiness and success in life the world gives a great kid and a good classmate. I hope change and you'll always be hopeful
I want this to go to your head (keep down) but, you make the best (keep up) be good and if you can't it's natural after all.
Love,
Kathleen Jane

Senior Class History

In the fall of 1954 we entered J.C.H.S. as green freshmen, but we were determined to show them that we belonged. We elected officers under the guidance of Miss Wiman, Mr. Benitone, and Mr. Bowie. Robert Hays was elected president; Gerald Engram, vice president; and Jenell Smith, secretary-treasurer. Glenda Spiller, Louis Schwarm, and Robert Hays were elected to the Student Council. Joyce Goddard and Joan Dascotte were chosen as our candidates for homecoming queen.

We entered our sophomore year with great expectations. We selected Albert Sullivan, president; Harry Oxford, vice president; and JoAnn Nargle, secretary-treasurer. As Student Council representatives, we selected Joyce Goddard, Mildred Muir, Robert Hays, Gerald Engram, and Albert Sullivan. Our sponsors were Mrs. Trulove, Mrs. Adelsberger, and Mr. Arvai. Our candidates for homecoming queen were Joyce Goddard and Sally Davis.

As "Jolly Juniors" we began our dramatic careers. Our first attempt was FOR THE LOVE OF PETE. For our class officers we chose Robert Hays, president; Gerald Engram, vice president; and JoAnn Nargle, secretary-treasurer. To the Student Council we sent Shirley James, Joan Dascotte, Robert Hays, and Willard Haynes. During this year we were led through all our decisions by Mrs. Miriani, Mrs. Humphreys, and Mr. Benitone. We gave the seniors an "Evening in Paris" when we treated them to their great night. Our dreams were fulfilled when Shirley James received Maid of Honor at homecoming and Joan Dascotte was our attendant.

Our final year at J.C.H.S. has finally arrived. We elected Louis Schwarm, president; JoAnn Nargle, vice president; and Judy Fairbanks, secretary-treasurer. Our representatives to the Student Council were Jerry Engram, Mildred Muir, Thelma Sexton, and Louis Schwarm. To help guide us through our last year at J.C.H.S. are Mrs. Miriani, Mrs. Adelsberger, Mrs. Yancey and Mr. Peeler. Judy Fairbanks and Sally Davis were our candidates for queen this year. Our second attempt at acting was WHO KILLED AUNT CAROLINE. It is expected to be a great success. So with these last lines we all look back at "our school" and remember the wonderful years we have all spent here.

Class Prophecy

Dear Diary,
May 22, 1983

I have just returned from a reunion where I enjoyed seeing most of my old classmates from Johnston City High School. I had a lively chat with each of them and we had a wonderful time talking about the days when we were at J.C.H.S. Here is the day I have just lived.

One of the first persons I chatted with was Sally Davis. Sally told me she was an airline hostess for T.W.A. She told me JoAnn Jansco was also a stewardess for T.W.A. and John Hansford was the pilot of the plane. Sally said she had met some very interesting people from our class of '58. Among them, were Everett Grant, President of the United States; Curtis Ewing, Vice President and Donnie Labotte, Secretary-Treasurer. All of these important officials were unable to come to the reunion.

While Sally and I were talking, Mrs. Tom Truran (former Thelma Sexton), and Evonne Hines walked up. They are both fashion designers in Paris, France.

As I looked around, I noticed Linda Fehrenbaker, Sharon Zasada, and Wanda Dorris in a group talking. As I walked over to join them, they started telling me about their nursing careers. I enjoyed this very much because I am a nurse myself. Sharon is a nurse to the famous surgeon, Jerry Halbin in Florida. Linda and Wanda are nurses to the outstanding M.D., Robert Hayes at the Jewish Hospital in St. Louis.

Colleen Coleman arrived accompanied by Mrs. Glen Murphy (former JoAnn Dragovich), Mildred Muir, and Mrs. Larry Cotton (former Linda Ladd). Colleen and Mildred told me they are secretaries in a large office firm in New York City. Mrs. Glen Murphy is a hair stylist and Mrs. Larry Cotton is a Patricia Stevens Model in Chicago.

While talking to these girls, JoAnn Nargle, Catherine Kowalis, and Delores Poskevich came over to chat. JoAnn is a famous comedian on Broadway; Catherine and Delores are both secretaries in the Pentagon Building in Washington, D.C.

Then I spoke to four of our top scientists who had just returned from the moon. They are Lindell Anderson, Roger Bell, Jim Holderfield and Vernon Hawkins. I glanced at the daily paper from the moon which was entitled, Moon Progress.

Then I talked to two coaches, Sonny Schwarm and Richard McClintock. Sonny is a coach at Iowa State and Richard is coaching at Michigan State. Gerald Engram was with them who is now a professional football player.

As I was talking to these former classmates, I heard beautiful singing in the background. I noticed it was two of my classmates, Marcia Canaday and Judy Fairbanks. Gloria Moore, a famous pianist, accompanied them on the piano. Marcia and Judy are top vocal singers in America. Along with them, was Ruth Alice Mitchell, a dance instructor, from California.

I then saw Ronald Motsinger drive up in a car which looked as though it had come from outer space but he told me it was one of his hot rods he had just built. With him were three of his mechanics, Loren Anderson, Jerry Avery, and Ralph Beaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fairbanks (former Joan Dascotte) told me they are prosperous owners of three exclusive dress shops in New York, San Francisco, and Chicago.

I was just thinking of what an enjoyable time I was having when Jenell Smith and Sue Shelton stumbled into me. Jenell is a minister in a huge Baptist Church. Sue is the assistant pastor.

Class Prophecy

Then I met Loretta Hall and Mary Davis. Loretta is a nurse in the Air Force and Mary has chosen a career in the Marine Corps.

I learned that Sheila McReynolds has become a lawyer and she is assisted by her secretary, Roberta Edwards.

As I was having a wonderful time meeting my old friends, Charles Forcum, an electrical engineer, walked up with Maynard Goddard. Maynard is the owner of a chain of drug stores all over the nation.

Then I talked with Leamon Robertson and Dwight Spiller. Leamon owns a large cattle ranch in Texas. Some of the cowpokes who work on his ranch are William Devine, Louis Malone, and Jerry Martin. Dwight is President of the Carpenters Union in the United States.

Then I recognized a very successful-looking man, Lyndell Trout, who told me he is President of the Bankers of the United States and with him is Albert Sullivan, an outstanding Wall Street broker.

Glenda Spiller explained to me the trouble she had as a school teacher. She said she could understand the teacher's feelings when we were in high school. With her was Sharon Springs, a Wall Street accountant.

Then I spoke to two of the senators from Illinois. They are Otis Brymer and Cletus Burchfield. My how some of these people have advanced since their high school days!!! Along with them is Dallas Campbell, President of Cyclone Fence Company in Chicago, Illinois.

Neva Edwards and Elaine Hill told me they are secretaries in the Empire State Building which is owned by Keith Cole and Jack Ragsdale.

Next, I talked to Harry Oxford who is a foreign correspondent for the New York Times owned by Charles Warren and Ronald Payne.

Eugene Royce, head of the F.B.I., explained to me what an exciting life he has trailing criminals all over the country.

I spoke to L. E. Jones, a famous architect for a large museum in New York City. With him is J. W. McNeill, an admiral in the United States Navy.

Sue Clendine, a famous political writer, told me about the slander she received for some of the things she wrote. With her was her private secretary, Wanda Chamness.

Glancing around, I noticed Carol Timmins who informed me she owned a beauty salon in California. Her assistants in the salon are Barbara Blankenship and Virginia Winters.

Next, I enjoyed a visit with Glendine Eberhardt, a well-known interior decorator, accompanied by her assistant, Marilyn Poskevich. With them is Geraldine Browder, hostess of a hotel in Chicago owned by Nancy Strunk, Phyllis Parrish, and Rosalie Eberhardt.

Betty Woodward told me she is working at the hospital in Elgin, Illinois. Judy McCombs and Ann McKnight are also on the staff at this hospital.

Then I talked to Sharon Dodd, who is a physical education teacher at Miami, Florida. Louise Anderson and Sue Ice are also members of the faculty in Miami.

I had a magnificent time today visiting with all of my classmates. Dear Diary, I consider this as the happiest day of my life.

Junior Class History

On September 3, 1954, we, then a group of bewildered, confused, green freshmen, began our first year at the Johnston City High School. After a period of going to the wrong classes and trying to survive the stampedes in the halls between classes we settled down and elected class officers. They were Mickey Goodman, president; Janice Cobb, vice president; and Paul Harper, secretary-treasurer. Donna Barra, Suzie Planinc, Bert Goad, and Alan Fleming were elected to represent our class in Student Council. Soon after we selected as our homecoming candidate and attendant Suzie Planinc and Janice Cobb. Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Burton were our class sponsors and guided us through this confused but wonderful first year.

In our second year as silly sophomores we were a little more confident. At our first class meeting we elected class officers. We elected as president, Bert Goad; vice president, John White; and secretary-treasurer, Delmer Mitchell; Pansy McCree, Nadine Lewis, and Mickey Goodman represented our class in Student Council. Again this year, we chose Suzie Planinc and Janice Cobb as our homecoming candidate and attendant. Our class sponsors were Mrs. Kowalis, Mrs. Sullivan and Mr. Tennis.

Our third year as jolly juniors was indeed a busy one. Now as "old-timers" of the school we were all excited over getting our long-awaited class rings. We first elected class officers. As president we elected Bert Goad; vice president, Judy Bowman; and secretary-treasurer, Adele Hughes. To represent us in the Student Council we elected Mickey Goodman, Alice Collins, and Betty Gibbs. This year as our homecoming candidates we elected Betty Gibbs and Pansy McCree. As our class sponsors we selected Miss Martell, Mrs. Small, and Mr. Castrale.

Now, as our third precious year comes to an end, we realize how fast the years have really gone.

Sophomore Class History

We entered high school in 1956 with a mingled feeling of excitement and fear.

We survived initiation day, after which a little of our freshman greenness wore off, and we began to settle down to the serious business of school.

Freshman class officers were Sandra Grant, president; Carol Wootton, vice president; and Sandra Dobbins, secretary-treasurer. Representing us in the student council were: Janice Cargal, John Wilson, and Keith Chapman. With our fine sponsors, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Jarrel, and Mr. Batts to help us, we did well in our attempt to rise in the eyes of our upperclassmen.

No, our freshman year will never be forgotten because it was the beginning of a new life for us.

As we begin our sophomore year, we know we'll soon live up to the title "silly" sophomores.

We chose as our officers for this year, William Crawford, president; Susie Smith, vice president; and Linda Perrine, secretary-treasurer. For our student council representatives we chose Judy Eberhardt, Nancy Grant, and Fred Canaday. Our class sponsors are Mrs. Pyle, Mr. J. Craig, and Mrs. Adelsberger.

We have done well each of our two years at J.C.H.S. in choosing candidates from our class to represent us in our homecoming celebrations. These were for our freshman year, Carol Wootton and Maureen Ellis; for our sophomore year, Carla Chestosky and Carol Wootton.

We hope we will do as well in our future years in high school as we believe we have done thus far.

Freshman Class Officers

Freshman Class History

Early in the fall of 1957, a large class of green freshmen entered a new and exciting high school. Soon after school started, the class met in the assembly and elected Wendell Stritzel as their president; Betty Kinely, vice president; and Terra Houghlan, secretary-treasurer. Kenneth Crabtree, Carolyn Colombo, and Carolyn Hill were selected to serve on the Student Council.

Our first big event was on September 27. This was Initiation Day. After obeying seniors for one whole day, we were finally members of the good old J.C.H.S.

Our second important event was homecoming, November 8. For candidates for Queen, we chose Eldora Knaub and Phyllis Poskevich.

With the help of our sponsors, Mr. Batts, Mr. Benitone, and Mrs. Williams, we struggled through our first year in high school and hope our future years will be as favorable.

The 1957 Homecoming was held on November 8, 1957. The parade began in the afternoon. The parade halted for an exciting pep rally downtown. Although it was cold, we still enjoyed the parade.

Just before the game, a Gabfest was held in the school library for all alumni. Immediately following the Gabfest, we watched the Indians score a 38-13 victory over Zeigler.

The dance began at eight-thirty. The music was furnished by Tommy Lawson and his orchestra. The gym was beautifully decorated in fall colors.

To the music of "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," Miss Judy Fairbanks, wearing the traditional black velvet robe and carrying a bouquet of yellow mums, was escorted to the throne by Gerald Engram, captain of the football team. Miss Betty Gibbs, a junior, was Maid-of-Honor, her escort was Richard McClintock.

The 1957 Homecoming will be long remembered as a pleasant memory to the students and alumni of J.C.H.S.

The PTA program offers (a) learnings for more skillful parenthood through study of how a child grows and what it is that builds his patterns of thinking and behaving; (b) it brings information about the school, how a child learns and how his education affects his citizenship; (c) it offers opportunity to study the effect of community conditions, other than homes, upon the lives of children; (d) it brings opportunity for any citizen to know the school curriculum and the qualities of the school program that may make it suitable for our times; (e) it helps us to understand the PARTNERSHIP of teaching, that is, how parents and teachers share in bringing a child to find his own talents, and to develop and use them for the welfare of man and for the glory of God.

The PTA program concerns itself with ALL THINGS that affect the lives of children.

CIPS CENTRAL ILLINOIS PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

A NEW AND EXPANDED LINE OF STATION WAGONS BY FORD, producer of the most popular wagons, is offered for 1958. New to the line is the six-passenger Fordor Ranch Wagon (above), one of Ford's six new models built on body shells entirely separate from the Ford passenger cars. Ford spent $185,000,000 on changes, including safety dual headlights, new jet intake grille and massive bumper, sculptured metal treatment throughout the car's exterior, and twin safety taillights as well as a completely new power train from engine to axle, all-new Cruise-O-Matic drive and optional Ford-Aire suspension.

SWEEPING STYLING CHANGES ARE APPARENT IN THE 1958 FORD CAR LINE. The Fairlane 500 Town Victoria (right) and Fairlane Club Victoria (left) share with all new Fords such dramatic styling changes as new safety dual headlights, corrosion-proof anodized aluminum grille, power flow hood, slip stream roof, sculptured inverted V trunk lid and twin safety taillights. Engineering and design advances include new engines, new Cruise-O-Matic transmission and optional Ford-Aire suspension.
